

GEO. L. HICKEY IS PROMOTED.

Succeeds E. H. Williams as Trainmaster, Montana Div., O. S. L.

BREWER, CAR ACCOUNTANT.

General Superintendent Calvin's Chief Clerk After May 15 Will be Walter Anderson.

Circulars will be placed in the hands of the printer tomorrow morning announcing the appointments of A. P. Brewer, chief clerk for General Superintendent E. H. Williams, as car accountant for the Oregon Short Line and L. Hickey, who is appointed trainmaster for the Montana division. The two promotions go into effect May 15. E. H. Williams, who has so long held the position which is to be filled by Mr. Hickey, comes to Salt Lake as a dispatcher. Mr. Williams has always had the confidence of General Superintendent Calvin and is regarded among railroad men as being one of the best trainmasters in the west. He only relinquishes his position on account of the bad health of Mrs. Williams and under the advice of the doctors who affirm that it is absolutely necessary for her to change her place of residence.

In addition to the changes set forth, on the same date Walter Anderson, who has been General Manager Bancroft's secretary for some time past, will be appointed chief clerk for Mr. Calvin, while Fred Knickerbocker, Mr. Calvin's secretary, will be made secretary to Mr. Bancroft, vice Mr. Anderson promoted. The promotion of Mr. Hickey means that he is now right in line for a division superintendency. He is particularly acquainted with the work which will now fall to his lot and the only regret that will be manifested in Salt Lake over the appointment will be that he will be obliged to leave the city and consequently be missed in business and social circles. Mr. Hickey first came to this city 11 years ago, coming here from Omaha with Mr. Bancroft, whose secretary he was at the time. Shortly afterwards he went to Pocatello as secretary to Mr. Calvin and accompanied him to Texas as chief clerk when Mr. Calvin was general superintendent of the I. & G. N. Mr. Hickey returned to Salt Lake with Mr. Calvin in the same capacity when that gentleman returned here as general superintendent, March '97. In October of the same year he was appointed car accountant, which position he is holding at the present time.

Mr. Brewer, chief clerk for Mr. Calvin, who succeeds Mr. Hickey, is generally liked by all the men with whom he comes in contact, and in that statement is set forth the attributes of the popular young official. To be able to occupy the position he now holds for at least a year and then have the unanimous good opinion of trainmen and employees alike speaks volumes for his ability and tact. In brief Mr. Brewer's railroad record is: 1887, revising clerk freight auditor's office, Union Pacific; 1890, chief clerk trainmaster, Union Pacific at Laramie; 1891, chief clerk, assistant superintendent at Green River; 1892, chief clerk, superintendent of the Idaho and Montana division, Union Pacific at Pocatello; 1895, chief clerk local freight office, Salt Lake; 1896, chief clerk Utah division, superintendent Oregon Short Line at Salt Lake; 1901, chief clerk, general superintendent, Salt Lake.

SCHOOL SQUABBLE.

Citizens of West Weber Worked Up Over Proposed Division of District.

[Special to the "News."] Ogden, May 12.—At the county commissioners' meeting this morning a petition from John C. Hunter and 26 others, residents of West Weber, asking for a division of the school district, was denied because of the opposition of County School Superintendent Wilson and Archibald McFarlane and Thomas Etherington, trustees. After the meeting the parties interested indulged in a heated discussion which was prevented from degenerating into fistuffs by the timely and peaceable offices of County Attorney Halverson.

County Physician Forbes reported that a placard containing the following inscription was found upon the fence of Henry Fisher in Harrisville, whose children are declared to have smallpox: "Notice: I will put up $500 against $100 that the county doctor can't prove any smallpox here." The placard is signed with Henry Fisher's name. The family is quarantined, but Mr. Fisher declares the affliction is not smallpox, but Manila Y. H. Sheriff Layne was instructed to notify Mr. Fisher to cease his belligerence.

A BAD WOUND.

Walter Clawson's Injury Dressed and The Bullet Extracted.

Drs. Benedict and Hosmer have extracted the bullet from the wound inflicted upon Walter Clawson on Saturday night and announced that the patient is under way to an early mending. The bullet entered just over the left shoulder and ranged down through the shoulder joint into the upper part of the arm. The surgeons opened the injured joint and removed several bone splinters, after locating the bullet by means of an X-ray apparatus. While the wound is a very bad one and entails considerable pain it is not a dangerous one, although the young man is likely to have a stiff arm and shoulder for probably the remainder of his lifetime.

The numerous assault was made upon the young man, in company with C. D. Campbell, by a couple of thugs bent upon robbery. Instead of obeying the order to "throw up" his hands, Mr. Clawson ran. It was then that the shot was fired. Later on the bandits were captured by Sergeant Edgington and Officer Randolph.

RED LIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

Women Must Move From Ground Floors and Live in Rooms in Upper Stories.

To the casual observer of things upon the street yesterday seemed to be about the same as preceding Saturdays with respect to the liquor traffic. Although the week had seen a change of head in the police department a change of behavior in the part of proprietors of saloons was not noticeable. True, the traffic of liquor dispensation may have been conducted a little less openly, but an industrious back-door pilgrimage was observed in many quarters.

Chief Paul, however, says he has determined to pursue a more restrictive policy with the female denizens of the "red light" district. For a long time they have occupied rooms on the ground floors of commercial street but the chief has ordered that they betake themselves to upstairs quarters and refrain from further occupation of rooms abutting on the sidewalks.

THIRTEEN MONTHS IN PRISON

Sentence Imposed Upon Indian "Jack-in-the-Box."

Jack-in-the-Box or Asket, the young Indian appeared before Judge Marshall in the United States court this morning to face the charge of breaking into the postoffice at St. George and purloining therefrom a certain amount of United States stamps. Asket is a weird person and excited to no end of curiosity as he stalked into the court room and stopped before the judge. His eyes wandered dreamily over the court room while the charge was being read to him and at its conclusion he said "guilty."

Without any hesitation the judge then sentenced him to 13 months imprisonment in the state prison. The only thing in the Indian's demeanor to indicate that he heard the sentence was his quietly turning around to the officer to be taken to his new home.

The flow has been considered by the state, and has been caused in and the drill is still going down. It is the intention of the company to continue down until the ground has been thoroughly explored.

A SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT

The First Presidency Greet a Number of Church Employees.

AN ENJOYABLE REUNION.

Three Working Departments Feasted and Welcomed at the Historic Bee Hive House.

A most enjoyable and unique entertainment was given by President Joseph F. Smith at the Bee Hive House on Saturday, May 10th, to the employees of the President's office, Historian's office and Tithing establishment and grounds, who, with their wives, assembled at 4 p. m. and were received with hearty congratulations and good wishes by the First Presidency and their wives, who exerted themselves to the utmost in making their guests at home, and in banishing all formality and everything which would prevent the utmost ease and good feeling. Considerable time was spent in welcoming the company in cheerful conversation and in making closer acquaintanceships. The humblest laborer was received on an equality with the most talented and distinguished of the company, and all were treated as brethren and sisters in very deed. President Smith moved around among them and had a kind word for every person present and everything moved in order and harmony.

Refreshments were served about 6 o'clock, after the divine blessing had been invoked by President Joseph F. Smith. Tables had been set for four persons, and all present were seated and entertained at once, so that there was no need of any "second table" movement. There was plenty for everybody and to spare, and the partaking of the excellent viands prepared was seasoned with pleasant conversation and that delightful freedom which can only be enjoyed with freedom by people who are imbued with a Christian spirit. After the refreshments a program was rendered about as follows:

Recitation, "The Engineer's Story," by David McKendle.

Song and Recitations, O. P. Whitney.

Duet, "Minerva and Ella Jensen."

Recitation, "Miss Anna Smith."

LOVE FOUND A WAY.

Ernest Green and Miss McCune Wed in New York.

The report of the marriage in New York of Miss Jactetta McCune, daughter of A. W. McCune, and Ernest Green, whose unsuccessful efforts towards an elopement to Farmington a few weeks ago is well remembered, has been confirmed in this city. Mr. Green left New York soon after Miss McCune departed for Peru, and when he left he was with the understanding that he would go on to Peru if necessary. This is a rather shining example of love finding a way in the case of both the young people. Mr. Green has been in the employ of Elias Morris & Sons company for some time and the reputation he bears there is the very best. It is further reported that Mr. and Mrs. Green have sailed for Europe, and a fact that adds strength to the report is that Mr. Green has ordered his mail sent to England.
